Introduction

Welcome to the STAGESCHOOL by RSL Awards' syllabus specification in Screen Acting.

This syllabus specification is designed to give teachers, learners and candidates practical information on the graded qualifications in Screen Acting.

This syllabus guide covers the following qualifications:

- RSL Graded Qualifications in Screen Acting: Entry 2 to Grade 8

Period of Operation

This syllabus specification covers graded qualifications in Screen Acting, from September 2021.

The Value of RSL Qualifications

STAGESCHOOL is part of RSL Awards. With a reputation for excellence, RSL is committed to providing high quality education and training through its syllabuses, examinations and resources for the Creative Arts. RSL advocates an open access approach to qualifications, providing a range of syllabuses, designed to accommodate a wide variety of candidates of different ages, experience and levels of achievement.

STAGESCHOOL graded examinations in performing arts are tailor-made to support and encourage learners of all levels and abilities and are accessible to learners from all countries and cultures. Having effective skills in communication and performance can boost confidence, increase employability skills, and have a hugely positive impact on a learner's future life and career.

Candidates taking a STAGESCHOOL examination will not only gain practical performance and communication skills but are also encouraged to reflect on their performance and the rehearsal process, developing their understanding of the material and the creative choices made.

STAGESCHOOL encourages creativity; the performance material is chosen by the teacher or candidate(s), allowing creative freedom and the opportunity for learners to study material of particular interest to them or from their own culture.

Accreditation and UCAS

All STAGESCHOOL graded exams are recognised and accredited in Scotland by Qualifications Scotland Accreditation.

RSL Grades 6, 7 & 8 carry allocated points on the UCAS (Universities & Colleges Admissions Service) tariff. Many students find these highly beneficial for university applications and entrance interviews.

For full details relating to the allocation of points for our qualifications, please visit:

www.rslawards.com/about-us/ucas-points/

Safeguarding

RSL takes the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults extremely seriously and has put in place as many preventative measures as possible within its assessment structure and processes. For further details please visit: www.rslawards.com/about-us/safeguarding

Expectations of knowledge, skills and understanding

The graded examination system is based on the principle of 'progressive mastery': each step in the exam chain allows the learner to demonstrate learning, progression and skills in incremental steps.

Successful learning is characterised by a mastery of the fundamental skills demanded in each grade.

Learners will be able to complete practical tasks and be tested on their underpinning knowledge (the complexity and variety of tasks are determined by which qualification is being attempted), which allows them to demonstrate skills, knowledge and understanding relevant to the grade. These skills set a firm platform for further technical and creative development by the learner.

Qualification Structure

STAGESCHOOL Graded Examinations consist of a range of both practical and knowledge-based tasks which are based on detailed requirements outlined in this syllabus.

Requirements for each grade are set out in detail. The Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria require skills, knowledge, and understanding of the syllabus requirements to be demonstrated at the grade entered.

Learner access and registration

The qualifications:

- are available to everyone who is capable of reaching the required standards
- are free from any barriers that restrict access and progression
- offer equal opportunities for all who wish to access them

Exam Entry & Requirements

These qualifications are open to everyone who is capable of reaching the required standard; there are no entry requirements. However, learners should be aware that the content at the higher grades will require a level of knowledge and understanding covered in previous qualifications. At the point of application, RSL will ensure that all learners are fully informed about the requirements and demands of the qualification.

Candidates can register for a STAGESCHOOL Screen Acting Exam at any time throughout the year. For more information on current fees, or to enrol in a STAGESCHOOL graded examination, please visit the official website – stageschool.io

Candidates may enter for the exam as follows:

1. One candidate
2. Two candidates

All candidates are individually assessed.

Recommended Prior Learning (RPL)

Learners are not required to have any prior learning for these qualifications. However, they should ensure that they are aware of the requirements and expectations of each grade prior to entering for an assessment.

Progression

Graded qualifications provide a flexible progression route for learners. They are a positive means of determining progress and enable learners to develop the necessary techniques to gain entry to further education and higher education courses. In addition, industry professionals are confident that learners achieving the highest level of graded qualifications will have developed the skills necessary to enhance employment opportunities in other areas, as a result of increased confidence, communication and presentation skills.

These qualifications assess arrange of interpretative skills, technical skills, and knowledge and understanding through the following components:

- Practical assessment: Performance tasks
- Knowledge and Understanding (Debut – Grade 8): Responding to questions relevant to the material presented

Learning Outcomes

A 'Learning Outcome' is a statement of what has been demonstrated as a result of successful completion of the assessment criteria.

The following are the broad Learning Outcomes which apply to all graded Screen Acting examinations, along with the relevant exam section. The Assessment Criteria, repertoire, technical challenges and knowledge requirements are set at each grade, and increase in difficulty as the grades progress:

*Note that Premiere candidates do not undertake Task 4. For Premiere, total marks for Tasks 1-3 will be aggregated to a mark out of 100.

Candidates may enter for the exam as follows:

- One candidate
- Two candidates

Examination Formats

STAGESCHOOL Screen Acting examinations are offered as Recorded Digital Exams only.

Process:

For RSL recorded digital exams to be valid, there are a number of rules that must be adhered to.

Candidates and teachers must read the guidance in full, to ensure they have the best chance of submitting a video that we can accept for submission.

As an overview, the following conditions apply, irrespective of whether tasks/scenes are performed as a solo or in twos.

- Only one camera / phone must be used when filming.
- A separate video must be made for each and every task.
- Videos must not be edited.
- Each video must be clearly labelled with the candidates' name(s) and the task number.
- Videos must be uploaded as one package, clearly labelled with the candidate's name(s) and the grade taken.

Candidates entering in twos upload the videos to one package, clearly labelled with both of their names and the grade taken.

- Knowledge and Understanding Video (Grades Debut – 8):
 - This must be filmed separately. Candidates announce their name and present their prepared response(s) to the questions (the number of which is dependent upon the grade), direct to the camera.
 - For exams with two candidates, one recording may be made, in which case each candidate should state their name and present their prepared responses, in turn.

General Notes

- Own choice scenes: For Task 1 (Grades 1-8), Task 3 (Grade 6), and Task 3a (Grades 7/8), each candidate must play only one character in the chosen scene (i.e. solo candidates perform a monologue and candidates entering in twos perform a duologue).
- Candidates perform all examination tasks from memory. Reading from a script is not permitted.
- Candidates entering in twos must be taking the same grade.
- Chosen scenes: Pdf copies of the scripts of Task 1 scenes (Grades 1-8), Task 3 scenes (Grade 6), and Task 3a scenes (Grades 7/8) must be provided at least 14 days before the date the exam is due to be recorded. This can be done at the point of booking the exam, or as soon after as possible.
- Chosen scenes must not have been performed before by the same candidate within an RSL qualification.

Camera shots:

All camera shots required for STAGESCHOOL Screen Acting examinations can be found in our supporting guidance. Note that the video will guide you through the process when using a smartphone, which we consider to be the most suitable device to achieve the required shots straightforwardly. If another device is used, e.g. a digital camera, candidates and teachers may adapt the guidance accordingly.

As an overview:

- The camera phone may be operated by another person
- The camera phone may be held in place using a tripod or similar stabilising device
- Once positioned, the camera should remain static throughout the task. Note that the camera operator may make minimal adjustments during the course of a task, if necessary, in order to ensure the candidate(s) are fully visible within the required shot, but any adjustments must not cause the camera shot to differ from that required for the relevant task.
- Only the candidate(s) and one chaperone/camera phone operator are permitted to be present in the room at the time of recording the examination tasks.
- The chaperone/camera phone operator must not lead or interact with the candidate(s) at any time.
- The camera phone operator may call “Action” at the start of any scene or scenario and “Cut” at the end if required, but this is not mandatory. Note that this may be helpful for the close-up scenarios, due to the discontinuous nature of the scene/scenario.

Minimum and Maximum Task timings:

- Tasks have set minimum and maximum durations.

Please note that:

- if a Task is below the minimum duration this may be reflected in the mark awarded
- if a Task is over the maximum duration the examiner reserves the right to stop assessing once the maximum duration has been reached

Introductions:

- Prior to the performance of all tasks, candidates state their name, the exam grade they are taking, and the task number, to camera. For younger candidates, this can be done by the camera phone operator.
- Prior to performing Task 1, Grades 6-8 candidates should clearly display valid photographic identification (such as Passport, Driving License, Student Union Card, ID Card) for at least ten seconds, in line with our policy.
- (Grades 1-8): For Task 1, after introducing themselves, candidates should then introduce the scene, stating the title, author and character(s), and a brief outline of the context of the scene. For more information on introductions, including an example, please refer to our Supporting Guidance documents at stageschool.io

- Note that, from Grade 4, contextual introductions are required for some other tasks. These are specified at each grade.
- For exams with two candidates, the introduction may be shared as desired.
- Introductions should be no more than 30 seconds in duration.
- Note that the purpose of introductions is to assist the smooth-running of the exam and are not assessed.
- Grade 6-8 candidates should read the entire text of any play or screenplay from which a scene has been chosen, in preparation for the Knowledge and Understanding component of the exam.
- Scenes must be performed in English. Any published translation of a non-English text is permitted.
- Comfortable clothing must be worn. Costume is not permitted, although long skirts may be worn over clothing if required for period scenes.
- Small handheld props are permitted. If a mobile phone is used as a prop it must be switched off.

Knowledge and Understanding

For the final component of the examination, candidates must prepare and present a response to chosen questions. Questions are based on the performed tasks and, from Grade 5, the rehearsal process.

Candidates select the appropriate number of questions as indicated, and prepare their response(s) to those questions. The Knowledge and Understanding video should be filmed separately, as a mid-shot.

Facing directly to camera, each candidate should announce their name. They should then state their (first) chosen question and present their prepared response to that question.

For Grades 1-8, candidates repeat the same process for the second question.

For exams with two candidates, one video may be made. Candidates may present their prepared responses one after the other, in any order.

Responses must not be read, but simple note cards may be used if required as a memory aid. The note card could be handheld or positioned behind the camera.

Choosing Monologue/Duologue Scenes (Grades 1-8)

STAGESCHOOL encourages creativity and does not make any compulsory recommendations for scene selection. However, the following may help teachers and candidates when selecting scenes:

- Each candidate must play only one character in the chosen scene (solo candidates perform a monologue and candidates entering in twos perform a duologue).
- Teachers should ensure that the content is suitable for the individual age and overall maturity of the candidate(s).
- Scenes should be selected carefully to ensure that they provide suitable opportunity for candidates to demonstrate the relevant assessment criteria.
- Candidates are reminded that if a chosen piece does not meet these requirements this may impact on the level of achievement possible within the examination.
- Monologues:
 - Solo candidates may choose to perform a soliloquy, or a monologue involving another character or characters. If you choose the latter, you should perform solo, directing your speech to the imagined character(s) as appropriate.

- - If a chosen monologue is a direct address to the audience, candidates should perform the monologue directly to the camera.
- When choosing duologues for two candidates, care must be taken to ensure that each candidate has a similar proportion of involvement in the scene.
- The content of the scenes must demonstrate a comparable level of technical and interpretative demand to those suggested in the STAGESCHOOL online catalogue of suitable material at each level.
- Use of accent/dialect: For Grades 1 to 5, it is not a requirement to use accents/dialect. However, Grades 6–8 candidates are required to employ the accent/dialect that reflects the author’s intention.
- Published scenes may be edited if necessary, and dialogue spoken by other characters edited out; however, the overall meaning of the scene must be maintained. Adding your own dialogue to scenes from published plays is not permitted.
- When adapting a scene from a novel, it is permissible to add dialogue, providing that the overall meaning, character, and style of the scene are maintained. For example, within the narrative there may be a description of a character’s thoughts or feelings, which may be adapted into dialogue.
- When adapting a scene from a novel, it is advisable to consider the overall structure, including how it begins and ends, and the character’s journey through the scene.
- Grade 6–8 candidates have the option of performing an original scene, devised and written by the candidate(s), for Task 3 or 3a. If this option is chosen, the scene must be scripted, and the above recommendations considered carefully.
- Although it is not mandatory for candidates taking grades 1 to 5 to read the whole play, film screenplay or novel from which the scene has been taken, it is important that they have an awareness of the context of the scene. Grade 6–8 candidates should, however, read the entire text of any play or screenplay from which a scene has been chosen.

If an examination candidate requires a Reasonable Adjustment or Special Consideration, please contact RSL Head Office for guidance and support.

Assessment, Marking and Attainment bands

All candidates, whether entering for their exam as a solo, or in twos, are assessed individually by the examiner, and receive an individual mark and (on passing their exam) certificate. The examiner will award marks in line with the published assessment criteria for the relevant grade taken, full details of which can be found later in this document, within the Content Specifications for each grade.

The exams are marked out of 100. The attainment bands are as follows:

Marks received	Attainment level
85 and above	Distinction
65-84	Merit
50-64	Pass
0-49	Unclassified

Examination Content, Assessment Criteria and Grade Descriptors

The STAGESCHOOL Screen Acting exam content is designed to encourage learners to develop vocal, physical and interpretative skills in screen acting. Each grade includes specific performance tasks, followed by the Knowledge and Understanding component (grades Debut-8 only), in which candidates communicate their ideas in response to specific questions. Performance pieces for Task 1 (Grades 1-8), Task 3 (Grades 6) and Task 3a (Grades 7/8) are chosen by the candidate or teacher.

The STAGESCHOOL online catalogue of suitable material, along with further guidance for teachers, can be found here – stageschool.io

GRADE 7

SOLO COMMERCIAL - Wonder Cloth

Script written and devised by Claire Huckle

(We open on our hero who looks tired and dishevelled. In a dressing gown and slippers, our hero comes towards the kitchen door and yawns.

They slowly come to a halt at the glass kitchen door, where we see them look into the messy kitchen. Plates, spilt drinks and food are everywhere. It may be have been the morning after the night before or just the result of a busy week.

The whole ad is filmed like a spaghetti western. They push the kitchen door open with both hands, and it swings behind them like a saloon door. (This can be mimed.)

Character:

OK dirt, this kitchen ain't big enough for the both of us .

(Our hero reaches for a standard anti-bac spray and the trusty 'Wonder Cloth' from their dressing gown belt. Focused and determined they triumphantly clean all areas of the kitchen with the spray and the 'Wonder Cloth'.

This can be performed as joyful and creatively as the candidate wishes.

The job is done. The kitchen looks pristine. They blow the top of the spray bottle, then spin the 'Wonder Cloth' around, putting it proudly back into their belt. They smile.)

Character:

Don't mess with the Wonder Cloth!

(That was easy (and even fun) they think. They sit with their feet up reading a magazine. Life is good again.)

(The final written slogan in this commercial would be "The Wonder Cloth. Here's to 'Wonder - ful days!"')

GRADE 7

SOLO COMMERCIAL - HydraGo H2O Moisturiser

Script written and devised by Claire Huckle

(We open to our main character, who talks to camera in a warm, educational and honest tone.)

Character:

My three main secrets to healthy, glowing skin? Firstly, I eat a healthy diet. Secondly, I drink plenty of water. Thirdly, my key ingredient to amazing skin is that I moisturise daily with HydraGo H2O. (They hold the product up to camera)

This multitasking lotion is an anti-aging serum, moisturizer, and sunscreen in one. Packed with line smoothers, hydrators, and broad-spectrum SPF 30, making it the only product you need in your morning skincare routine.

HydraGo H2O contains emulsions of oil and water that help replenish hydration, keeping moisture in skin and dryness out. It guards the skin barrier, keeping skin youthful, defending against inflammation and damage. It also protects your skin from harmful UV rays, no matter the season. It's even been proven to reduce dark spots, fine lines, and wrinkles over time.

(Character takes some moisturiser out of bottle and rubs on face. This can be mimed).

No more do I have to worry about signs of dehydration, irritation and redness. It's quick, easy and lasts all day!

(In a whispered smile)

HydraGo H2O – make it your secret.

GRADE 7

DUOLOGUE COMMERCIAL - Air Wave X Fan

Script Written and Devised by Claire Huckle

(Past Me and Future Me are both on an online call together. They are sitting in the same office. Each character is facing the camera head on, as if they are talking into their computer screens.)

Past Me: Hello I'm me.

Future Me: Hello I'm future me.

Past Me: How are things?

Future Me: Who me? I'm fine! And you?

Past Me: Me? I'm boiling. Really need to get some better airflow in here.

Future Me: Ah, I used to feel like you.

Past Me: Me?

Future Me: Yes, every day. Until I bought the new Air Wave X.

Past Me: What's that?

Future Me: It's a simple, powerful, and reliable fan that can move huge amounts of air without making too much noise. It's designed to circulate all of the air in your room better than an oscillating fan, and without the distraction of the constant clamour.

Past Me: The what? (Past Me turns off their fan.)

Future Me: The constant noise.

Past Me: Oh. Pricy I bet? Way out of my budget.

Future Me: Actually, It's one of the most affordable fans on the market.

Past Me: How big is it? My office space is quite small, as you know.

Future Me: It's very compact—not much bigger than a football. And it's even backed by a three-year warranty.

Past Me: Is it super techy and hard to use?

Future Me: It doesn't have any gimmicks, like a remote or a timer. Its minimalist design makes it easy to use and, equally important, easy to clean and maintain. I know how you like to keep things tidy! You're such a perfectionist.

Past Me: Me? Stop it. You know me so well!

Present Me: You really can't go wrong with the Air Wave X, so go on treat yourself!

(The final written slogan in this commercial would be "Air Wave X. It's the 'wave' forward")

DUOLOGUE COMMERCIAL - Purfect Cat Food

Script Written and Devised by Claire Huckle

(Note that the candidates may react to the cat's dialogue without it being heard, or the cat's dialogue may be spoken by the unseen camera operator. We open to a pair of flat mates having breakfast around the table. Flat mate A is reading a magazine, dressed ready to go to work and Flat mate B is busy making breakfast. Flat mate lowers the magazine and looks around.)

FM A: Have you fed the cat yet?

FM B: No, I haven't seen him this morning.

(All of a sudden the cat appears, looks up to them both and states in a very serious tone:)

Cat: 'Hey guys, we need to talk'

(The friends are shocked and taken off guard. The tone of the cat makes them feel like naughty children:)

Cat: 'Why do you keep buying this rubbish?'

(The pair look bewildered and take a few moments to compose themselves, before attempting to undertake this answer, they look at each other slightly confused and shrug...)

FM A: Well, because it's on offer...

FM B: We're trying to budget at the moment you see.

(They watch their cat reply, staring in utter disbelief)

Cat: 'Well you can buy Purfect for the same cost, it's better for me and more environmentally friendly. Don't you guys know anything?'

FM A: Er ... sorry Ginger... you never said.

FM B: We didn't think ...

FM A: We'll buy Purfect from now on...

FM B: Definitely ...

(Both friends look guilty. The cat responds.)

'I'm moving out until this matter is sorted'.

(The flat mates watch the cat leave the flat in disbelief. They urgently grab their things and head out the door to the supermarket.)

FM A&B: What! No ginger... wait!

(The final written slogan in this commercial would be "Your cat matters. Purfection matters. Buy Purfect.")

SOLO COMMERCIAL - Cool Breeze – A gender-neutral fragrance.

Script written and devised by Claire Huckle

(We see our character smartly dressed in a crisp white shirt. Looking like they are preparing for an interview, they sit at a bus stop waiting for their bus. Carrying a briefcase in one hand, and their immaculate looking CV in the other. They look professional and ready to impress.

The character practices their hand shake along with their greeting in different ways, for example:)

“Great to meet you”, “Hello, pleasure to meet you” etc.

(Note that the candidate can improvise up to three greetings of their choice.

They suddenly see the bus arriving, and show a mixture of apprehension and confidence. They stand and wave the bus down on the curb.

To their horror the bus pulls up and splashes them from head to toe in a muddy puddle.

Shocked and soaking. They reluctantly wave the bus on, and sit back down. Panicked and upset they seem to have lost all confidence. Note that the candidate can include dialogue here, if desired.

They then have a brain wave; they smile and open their briefcase. We watch them pull out a trendy blue bottle and spray themselves with the gender-neutral fragrance Cool Breeze. They breathe a sigh of relief and we watch them relax. They smell gorgeous.

The next bus arrives and they wave it down in a confident and relaxed manner.

(The final written slogan in this commercial would be “Cool Breeze. Keeping you cool in every situation”.)

DUOLOGUE COMMERCIAL – Gleeeful Retreats. Holiday Park.

Script written and devised by Claire Huckle

(We open at a hairdressing salon, where a customer is having their haircut by one of the hairdressers.)

We see a customer sitting in a chair looking at themselves in the mirror, whilst having a trim. The hairdresser standing behind them with a pair of scissors.)

Hairdresser: Going anywhere nice on your holiday this year?

Customer: We are indeed, we've booked with the same company we went with last year.

Hairdresser: Oh right! Where's that then?

Customer: Just down the road actually.

(The hairdresser looks confused, but carries on cutting and smiles.)

Hairdresser: Lovely.

Customer: It is! We've booked with Gleeeful Retreats again.

Hairdresser: I've heard of those, there's loads aren't there?

Customer: There's 15 locations all across the UK – and each one is totally unique. Actually, their latest retreat opened just an hour down the road from here, so we are going to check it out.

Hairdresser: What are you staying in?

Customer: In the Glee House. Well essentially it's a luxury tree house, but you can stay in a fabulous chalet or even try a bit of glamping.

(Hairdresser puts down the scissors.)

Hairdresser: Amazing.

Customer: It is. All of their retreats offer the same great features. There's so many outdoor activities and entertainment programmes - we never get bored! Each retreat has a massive 300 acres of natural landscapes to explore and there's a huge water sports lake as well.

Hairdresser: What if it rains?

Customer: Not a problem. There are indoor sports facilities, swimming pools and an amazing spa, which apparently has won awards. They've even got a hairdressing salon!

(The Hairdresser looks intrigued.)

Hairdresser: Really? And is it Self Catering?

Customer: There are amazing cooking facilities, but there's also an incredible variety of wonderful restaurants with tasty dishes to tuck into.

Hairdresser: Sounds too good to be true. What are the details again?

Customer: Just check out their website at Gleeeful Retreats.com

Hairdresser: I will and I may well see you there!

(They both smile.)

(The final written slogan in this commercial would be "Gleeeful Retreats. Too good to be true!")

DUOLOGUE COMMERCIAL – The Skylar E-Drive Car Commercial

Script written and devised by Claire Huckle

(We reveal two friends in a park. Character A is sat on a bench reading a newspaper. Character B goes to join them.)

A: Hey! How are you doing?

B: It's arrived...

A: What has? (B looks at the article) Oh the new E – Drive!

B: The new Skylar. What a thing of beauty!

A: It's amazing, from all angles. Never has an electric car come along and done onboard luxury better than this.

B: This car combines four-wheel drive and a commanding outright performance level with SUV-level space, convenience and usability.

A: But what really makes it stand out is how superbly hushed, comfortable and refined it is.

B: It even comes with state-of-the-art technology too, with the potential for 150kW public rapid charging, combined with an everyday range of between 200- and 250 miles on a charge.

A: New bumpers and spoilers. Aero wheels and arches.

B: (Reading) 'The spacious interior exudes quality', the leather seats look incredible...

A: and the driving position is first-rate. You can even pick your own ambient lighting colour.

B: No way?!

A: I don't think there is no more luxurious electric car in the world than this one...

B: How would you know?

A: Fancy a ride?!

(A clicks their car key to open this exact car behind them. We see The Skylar E-Drive flash it's lights in an inviting manner.)

(B looks around in disbelief.)

(The final written slogan in this commercial would be "The new Skylar E-Drive. Why wouldn't you?")
