Dear Sir/Madam

25th February 2016

CDET, a prominent trade body in the dance, musical theatre and performing arts industries, is happy to confirm that the following qualifications offered by RSL are fit for purpose as stated in the qualification purpose statement:

- 601/7682/9 RSL Level 3 Diploma in Creative and Performing Arts
- 601/7683/0 RSL Level 3 Extended Diploma in Creative and Performing Arts

CDET values this provision as it equips learners with the specialist knowledge and skills required to facilitate entry to the industry.

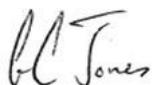

CDET is a membership organisation and charitable company limited by guarantee. Its present members include pre-vocational teaching organisations, vocational training schools, awarding bodies, industry organisations and individuals with a range of expertise in dance, musical theatre and performing arts, education, assessment and training. CDET's work extends throughout the United Kingdom.

CDET's Board comprises of key stakeholders including Equity, UK Theatre, the Society of London Theatres (SOLT), as well as representation from international dance companies, highly respected vocational dance schools and awarding bodies. Further, present independent Trustees on the Board include casting director - David Grindod - who has worked extensively with Andrew Lloyd Webber etc.

CDET has served the performing arts sector since 1979, working closely with members to ensure that the quality of training and qualification provision remains at a level that secures the supply of quality practitioners for the future.

We are happy to support RSL in this application.

Yours sincerely

Glyndwr Jones
(Director CDET)
