Dear Sir/Madam

Re Music Practitioners Qualification, levels 1,2 and 3

Having reviewed the syllabus for the Rockschool qualifications, in particular the Music Practitioners Qualification, my professional opinion is successful completion of this course would equip a student to progress onto an apprenticeship, entry level work or further education.

While I am not qualified to comment on the academic standards of the course or delivery of the content at individual schools and colleges, as a music industry expert the syllabus appears rigorous, flexible and covers a wide range of topics essential for those wishing to start a career in contemporary music.

Yours sincerely
